

AMERICAN MISSION TEAMS
EVANGELISTIC ORGANIZATION, INC.
INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE OF BIBLE THEOLOGY

General Information

International College of Bible Theology is a not-for-profit evangelical religious organization founded in 1990. International College of Bible Theology operates pursuant to the State of Missouri Educational Code for exempted organizations.

We are purely a theological school. We are not a member of any regional accrediting body. However, we are a member of the Accrediting Commission International for Schools, Colleges, and Theological Seminaries as noted in the Library of Congress (Tx1-191-576).

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of International College of Bible Theology is to equip and train Christians so they will be effective members in the Kingdom of God. Briefly stated, our objectives are given to students:

- A thorough and systematic instruction of the Word of God to provide a foundation for building life's spiritual experiences
- The ability to relate basic principles of the Bible to today's living, to walk the Spirit-filled life, and to know God's voice
- The preparation to fulfill the Divine calling
- The equipping needed to fulfill Jesus' command to "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations..." (Matthew 28:19) and the training and experience to be a leader
- The vision of God's restoration of His church and spreading the gospel of the kingdom to the ends of the earth
- To prepare students for life management and to benefit the community as a whole, enabling the student to participate in the working world as well

The goal of International College of Bible Theology is to equip men and women for a lifetime of service to Jesus Christ. This is achieved by a careful blending of academic excellence with practical experience. Students are guided by a faculty of teachers educated in the Word of God who are committed to the Lord Jesus. We believe International College of Bible Theology offers the serious student of the Word the opportunity to make sound Christian education a reality.
